

One-year Follow-up Email

It's been a year since you moved into your home, [Client].

[Client]: Happy house anniversary!

I hope you've enjoyed your first year in your new house and your family is adjusting well. But if there's anything I can do to help, just let me know.

As you are aware, relationships are essential to the real estate industry. I'd be grateful if you could forward my contact information to a friend or coworker looking to purchase or sell in [region].

Regards,
